SHIME AHUA

New single Surrender out now

OUT NOW · 13 NOV 2026

Surrender

"Surrender is the best heart posture. It's the hardest, but it's the best."

Written when life wasn't going to plan, "Surrender" turns worry into trust. A reminder from Philippians 4:19 became a song about letting go, playful on top and sincere underneath.

Written and produced by	Shime Ahua
Assistant producer	Rejoice Dara Ukpe (RJ)
Mixed and mastered by	Victor Elisha (Vblaiz)
Guitars	P-Strings, Moyinoluwa Waziri
Genre · length	R&B/Soul, Contemporary Christian · 2:19

Nigerian singer, songwriter and producer. Songs about love, loss and faith, written to remind you that you are loved.

Shimewuese Bethany Ahua, known as Shime Ahua, is a Nigerian Afro-folk singer, songwriter and producer. She learned the piano at ten and picked up the guitar a few years later, and released her first single, "You and Me", in 2017, followed by "Daddy" and "Reason".

Her debut EP BLOOM moved through grief, healing and self-discovery. "Surrender", self-produced, is about letting go of control. The message stays the same: you are loved and deserving of love.
